PRESIDENTS LETTER

Hi Vista friends,

Thank you to Marsha Raffeld for a fun, interesting and yummy program. She made us some delicious pastries and gave us many helpful cooking hints.

I hope you have paid your $10 dues for the 2018-19 year, so that you may participate in our fun activities. If you receive your newsletter by snail mail instead of electronically, we would appreciate your payment of $29 for the year. The first two months of this year the printing of the newsletter was not a cost to us.

We have some fun events coming up. Tea at the Huntington Library, some yummy locations for luncheon and Happy Hour. A new location for the Mahjong group is in the offing.

I am up in Northern California enjoying my new granddaughter and grandson.

Hope to see more of you all in the coming months.

Happy Fall, Trudy

SUNNY & SHARE

Summer is winding down and we are looking at a new school year for our children and grandchildren. Where has summer gone!! Our members are not winding down though. We continue to have fun. SANDY STEVENS is off to Oregon to her stepson's wedding. It will be a rather grand affair and Sandy is looking forward to it. MARY DAHLBERG is also hitting the road. With her husband Chuck, they are visiting family and friends in Colorado as well as Minnesota. Happy travels to you. CAROL ZUKOWSKI just had a fabulous family pool party to celebrate her son Patrick's 40th birthday. Everyone had a splashy good time. GAIL MICHAELS has returned from her trip to the Big Apple . While there, she did a lot of sightseeing and especially enjoyed touring Ellis Island, the Statue of Liberty and Central Park. TRUDY SNELL is up in Northern California helping out her daughter and son-in-law, and enjoying her new granddaughter and grandson. Ed and I are getting our grandson to school, making, breakfast, lunches, and dinners. And doing housework etc. We went shopping at the Farmer's Market this morning. Please find a couple of photos attached. The advantage of being newsletter editor.

For fun and interesting newsworthy items, send me an e-mail or call me at 760-659-6207.
